*Other External Requirements:

- If any external requirement course is part of Teaching Area 1 or 2, then the requirement will be fulfilled by courses within the Teaching Area.
- Exception: If English, Social Studies and/or Indigenous Studies are Teaching Areas, then at least one (and at most two) of the external requirements are replaced with an external elective.

Teaching Area Options for Early/Middle Years B.Ed.:

All students in the Early/Middle Years B.Ed. program are required to have two teaching areas:

1. Teaching Area options are listed below. Complete program requirements, including a list of courses that meet the teaching area requirements can be found at programs.usask.ca under "Colleges and schools" > "Education" > Bachelor of Education > B.Ed. - Early/Middle Years Program.
 2. The Early/Middle Years Teaching Area 1 requires a total of 18 credit units: 6 junior (100-level) credit units and 12 (200-level or higher) credit units.*
 3. The Early/Middle Years Teaching Area 2 requires a total of 12 credit units: 6 junior (100-level) credit units and 6 senior (200-level or higher) credit units.*
- * Some teaching areas allow 100-level courses taken after the first 6 credit units to be counted as senior courses. Please consult an academic advisor or the University Catalogue (programs.usask.ca) for details.*
4. If Social Sciences/Social Studies is one of your teaching areas, at least 6 credit units must contain Canadian content. See the University Catalogue (programs.usask.ca) for a list of courses that have Canadian content.
 5. Students may choose Social Sciences/Social Studies OR Indigenous Studies as a Teaching Area, but cannot choose both.
 6. If Cree or French or Languages is one of your teaching areas:
 - i. only 3 credit units of English are required. If English Language Arts and Cree, French or Languages are Teaching Areas, then English requirements are part of Teaching Area only.
 - ii. ECUR 362.3: Introduction to Principles and Practices of Second Language Teaching is required instead of 3 credit units of Education elective.
